Songs Casting Promotion Release Critical reception Salaam Zindagi received mixed to negative reviews from critics. Paresh M of Bollywood Hungama gave the movie a rating of 3 out of 5, and wrote, "Salaam Zindagi doesn't really have a distinct identity to be appreciated but it's an average movie which should be seen by those looking for a lighthearted comedy. The performances of Aziz Nasser, Mast Ali and Dheer Charan could be rated as average, while Meera Vijayakar is good and the subject matter is topical but the script doesn't exactly give it the needed relevance.". Taran Adarsh of Bollywood Hungama gave the movie a rating of 2.5 out of 5, and wrote, "Salaam Zindagi is a typical routine family entertainer which the makers could have done better. The acting is loud and over the top, as expected. It's one of those films which is ok to watch once in a while and you can see some funny lines. But would it be worth seeing three or four times? No, not at all. There's no twist at the end and the
